Do your Cambridge ESOL DELTA Modules at Flying Teachers. The comments below, made by people who have done the course with us, highlight the quality of our training :

« A must for any serious EFL teacher! Great insight, great depth and a great teacher guiding you !»

Nuria Smyth, from Delemont

„I would recommend this course to anyone who is taking the Delta Module 1 exam. It definitely helped me organize and prepare myself for the exam. The teacher taught us many different strategies and provided us with excellent material.“

Erika Fauchere, from Lausanne

"The step-by-step, clear, organized material and the effective, skilled guidance provided by Cris Vieira made the preparation for this challenging examination, not only manageable but also highly interesting and enjoyable. In the classroom, this course has broadened my understanding of teaching methods, models and materials and, consequently, helped me become a much more confident, dynamic and reflective teacher."

Neera Malick, from Zurich

The Flying Teachers Delta Module I preparation course was a huge part of my success on the exam. But I didn't just learn what I needed for the test, I also acquired valuable methods and skills that have notably improved my teaching. The guidance and training I received was well worth every penny!

David Kaufher, from Bern

First of all I would like to emphasize that I did the DELTA Modules I and III at Flying Teachers because Cris Vieira Oberholzer was the trainer (I first met Cris in 2007 when I did the Bridge from CELTA to SVEB I course). She is very organised, efficient, professional and extremely competent. Her support and quality of input are excellent. I am looking forward to doing the DELTA Module II with Cris.

Lale Sale, from Zurich

I'm thankful that I have chosen Flying Teachers to do my Delta course. Cris, our tutor, is an absolute expert in her field and I felt really supported throughout the entire course.

The lessons were very well organised and Cris was always ready to offer her help and constructive criticism. I'm definitely looking forward to finishing my last Module there as well.

Indra Mueller, from Winterthur

"I studied (and passed) Delta Module I with Flying Teachers - the whole experience was brilliant. We had a very knowledgeable teacher who really understood the course and who led interesting and thought-provoking lessons. Coming into this course without CELTA, I was particularly pleased with the additional help and support I needed to get me through it. I've now got regular work teaching English - thanks to Cris and Flying Teachers for helping me!"

Jack Roberts, from Zurich

The Delta Modules- Frequently asked questions

How much experience do teachers need to take the Delta modules?

The modules are for practising teachers. Length of practice is not so important as the quality of the teacher's previous experience and whether they can demonstrate that they are now ready to progress to a higher level qualification. Following is the guidance given regarding target candidature.

What is the focus of each of the three modules?

- Module One focuses on the background to teaching and learning.
- Module Two involves Teaching Practice.
- Module Three focuses on assessment and course planning in the context of a specialist option (e.g. YL, ESOL, ESP, 1-1).

Do candidates have to take all three modules?

No. Candidates may choose to enter a single module or any combination of modules. Each module is separately certificated: this allows candidates to receive credit for each module successfully completed.

Can the modules be taken in any order?

Candidates may choose to take the modules in any order if this is appropriate to their needs and context.

Do candidates have to complete all three modules within a specific time?

No. Candidates can complete modules when and as often as they wish and there is no time limit for completion of all three modules.

If each module assumes the 'knowledge and competence' gained from the previous one, how can modules be taken in any order?

The Delta modules are for practising teachers. The profiles and needs of candidates vary. Many will have existing qualifications. The modular structure is designed to allow flexible and appropriate development for individual teachers.

Why has the option of a specialist focus been introduced?

This reflects employers' growing needs for teachers skilled in teaching in specific contexts, e.g. Business English, EAP, ESP, 1-1, ESOL, YL.

Do Module Three candidates need to have previous experience of their specialist option?

Previous experience is not necessary. While many candidates already have some experience in their chosen specialism, some candidates may want to extend their professional expertise by developing a specialism in which they have little previous experience. The specialism should be relevant to their current or intended teaching context and the centre at which they are enrolled must be able to supervise it.

How is each module assessed?

Module One is assessed via a written examination.

Module Three is assessed via an extended written assignment.

How many times is the Module I written examination offered?

It is offered twice a year: in June and December.

Do candidates receive an overall Delta certificate?

Candidates receive a separate certificate for each module completed. The information provided on the back of each certificate will outline the aims and content of the module. Candidates who successfully complete all the modules can request an overall certificate.

Do the Delta Modules have the same recognised status?

Yes. Delta is widely recognized and valued and Cambridge ESOL is working with stakeholders to capitalise on the advantages offered by the revised modular syllabus. The modules offer greater transparency and flexibility as each module will be worth 20 credits (200 learning hours), allowing candidates, universities and other users to see more easily how the modules fit into other qualifications. Cambridge ESOL is actively pursuing the extension of recognition for all three Delta modules.

Who can deliver the Delta Modules?

Approved Cambridge ESOL examination centres and/or teaching award centres can enter candidates for Modules One and Three. Centres may offer face-to-face, online or blended learning preparation courses for Modules One and Three but these courses do not need to be approved by Cambridge ESOL.

Only approved teaching award centres can deliver Module Two courses or integrated modular courses which include Module Two.
