Flying Teachers – your partner for a career in English Language Teaching

Would you like to become an English Teacher? Are you interested in teaching in Switzerland or worldwide? Have a look at the Cambridge English CELTA programme, which has been offered by Flying Teachers since 2001. More than 1000 teachers have done their course with us!

Sue Wood
Cambridge Centre Manager

My name is Sue Wood and I am Head of the English department and the Cambridge Centre Manager, with responsibility for CELTA, DELTA, Bridge to SVEB and TKT as well as all Cambridge Examinations. My role within Teacher Training is to coordinate all aspects of the programme, ensuring both tutors and trainees have all the information they need for a successful course.

Daniel Nadig
Cambridge English CELTA / DELTA Tutor

My name is Daniel Nadig and I have been teaching English since 2010 in many contexts and countries. I started at Flying Teachers in 2015, did the DELTA, became a CELTA tutor and started giving workshops for teachers. As a teacher and teacher trainer I enjoy working with people from various backgrounds and I aim to create an experience which is useful, memorable and enjoyable for all.

The Cambridge English CELTA

The CELTA (Certificate in English Language Teaching to Adults) course is the original «TEFL» course. Flying Teachers offers full-time and part-time CELTA courses. The course will teach you the principles of effective teaching and a range of practical skills for teaching English to adult learners. You will have hands-on teaching practice, observe experienced teachers in the classroom and complete four written assignments.

Our courses are designed to help you gain the required teaching skills and make the course an enjoyable learning experience. Our CELTA trainers have a reputation of being supportive and helpful: more than 1000 teachers have done the CELTA with us!

Our course is intended for those without previous experience who wish to enter the profession and for teachers with no previous training in this field. Success in the Certificate has enabled many candidates to obtain their first teaching position: the course is highly regarded by employers as providing sound initial training and a strong basis from which to develop your teaching skills as a teacher of English.

CELTA is accepted throughout the world by organisations which employ English language teachers.

Teaching Knowledge Test

Test and preparation course

The Cambridge English Teach Knowledge Test Preparation Course will focus on:
Exam Tasks that aim to prepare you for the Teaching Knowledge Test Modules

English Teaching Methodology focusing on key principles related to the Teaching of English as a foreign language. This part of the course is very practical and aims to prepare you for the job market.

The Teaching Knowledge Test (The TKT) is a test developed by Cambridge English Assessment for teachers who teach other languages. It is designed to test candidates' knowledge of concepts related to language and language use, and the background to and practice of language teaching and learning.

You can take TKT whatever your background and teaching experience. It is suitable if you are:

- either a pre-service or a practising teacher
- teaching primary, secondary or adult learners
- a teacher who wants to gain formal recognition of your experience, keep your teaching skills up to date and develop your career opportunities.

You ideally need to have English competence at CEFR Level C1.

Important: Flying Teachers accepts TKT as a recognised teaching qualification but new teachers might be asked to give a trial lesson before being hired. Unlike CELTA, teachers who have passed TKT Modules 1, 2 and 3 will only be able to teach up to 200 hours a year. In order to teach for an unlimited number of hours, we recommend CELTA.

Supervised Teaching Practice

(an internship programme offered to Flying Teachers CELTA trainees)

Flying Teachers is reference in English Language Teaching and Training.

The Flying Teachers Teacher Training Centre (CELTA/DELTA/SVEB) is a leading educational centre for language teachers in Switzerland.

Flying Teachers has been training English teachers since 2001 and language teachers for French, German, Italian and Spanish since 2006.

Life after CELTA: If you do your CELTA course with us, you will have the opportunity of doing an internship in our training centres in Bern and Zurich.

Who are the internships for?

- CELTA teachers without any previous teaching experience apart from the hours taught during CELTA
- Qualified teachers without any formal teaching experience
- Experienced teachers looking to complete practical training
- Teachers wishing to gain experience in teaching English online

Our offer:

- You will teach a four to six-week language course with adults with lesson plan models and detailed course programmes
- You will practise managing the group of learners and teaching a programme for a specific period of time
- You will develop key teaching skills like planning from lesson to lesson, delivery, assessment
- You will take on responsibility and work in a structured relationship with the learners.
- You will learn how to teach a sequence of lessons
- You will teach either daily, two or three times a week (either from 8.30-11.00, 11.15-13.45, 14.00-16.30 or 17.30-20.30). Courses are offered on a monthly basis.

We offer the following support:

The programme will include at least one observation with a CELTA/DELTA tutor and you will receive a detailed report on your performance with a detailed action plan for professional development.

The tutor will also be available to answer any questions you might have about the sequence of lessons (material selection, procedures, approaches).

Further benefits

You will receive a detailed internship report at the end of the training programme

Last but not least: you will also receive an internship salary.
